Dan Cupid More Ready to Correct Mistakes.

One in Ten Brides Were Married Before.

Divorces Seem to Have the Advantage.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

SACRAMENTO, March 16.—Data and statistics compiled by the state Board of Health and based on the marriage records show interesting changes in the matrimonial situation in California. They prove a large number of original mistakes by Dan Cupid, but which he has attempted to correct by making other arrangements for the victims of his bad judgment.

The statistics for 1912 show that as compared with the year 1911, the proportion of first marriages, or unions between bachelors and maidens, decreased last year showed comparatively large percentages of marriages which were the second or more for one of both parties, either groom or bride or both of them being widowed or divorced.

More men and women contracted second marriages last year than ever before.

There was a shrinkage in the proportion of marriages between bachelors and maidens over previous years. A study is observed in the number of divorces which become final.

About one bride in ten in California had been either a plaintiff or defendant in a divorce suit.

Statistics for seven years past, in fact, show a steady rise in the percentage of divorces among brides, 1912, 7.4; 1911, 7.4; 1910, 7.7; 1909, 8.4; 1908, 9.5; 1907, 9.6; and 1906, 9.8.

GERMAN CONSUL IS LIBERATED.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NOGALES (Ariz.) March 16.—Max Muller, German Consul Agent and banker at Hermosillo, was liberated today by State authorities and allowed to go to his home. Muller was arrested on refusal to make a loan to the State government. The Banco de Sonora, of which he was an officer, was raided.

Under the guise of searching for arms, State troops in control of Nogales, Sonora, are looting homes. Many residents who returned to the Marion side after the battle last week again are seeking here, reporting petty thieving.

So far, no movement has been made toward the assistance of State troops defeated yesterday below Naco. Gen. Obregon, however, is said to be contemplating moving a strong force to assist in crushing Ojeda.

WOULD KIDNAP CHANCELLOR.

Women Plot to Carry Off British Chancellor of the Exchequer.

(By Atlantic Cable and A. P. Wire to The Times.)
LONDON, March 16.—The Reverend Sunday Journal, devoted to sport and the drama, says the details of an elaborate suffragette plot to carry off David Lloyd George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, are just beginning to leak out.

"The whole thing," says the paper, "was well organized but was given away by the over-zeal of one of the appointed abductors. The retreat of the honorable gentleman had been carefully arranged in an unfrequented park in the country, and had natural advantages, which would enable quite a small party to succeed."

A suburban house of apartments had been prepared for the captive and he would have had every attention. The plotters had even gone so far as to engage the services of a doctor devoted to the cause to be in attendance on the Chancellor during his captivity.

When the government learned of the daring nature of the plot the number of detectives guarding Mr. Lloyd George was largely increased.

Carraña's forces held a few small towns north of Monterrey, but have destroyed enough bridges on the National Railway to suspend traffic for some days. The Central Railway is still shut in several places in short distance south of Chihuahua.

MINIMUM WAGE IN NEW YORK.

BILL TO BE INTRODUCED IN LEGISLATURE TO REGULATE COMPENSATION OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES.

ALBANY (N. Y.) March 16.—Provisions for a "minimum wage" were made in a bill introduced in the Assembly today by the Progressive party plan to introduce tomorrow in the Legislature.

In explaining the proposed legislation, former Senator Frederick M. Davenport, chairman of the Progressive party Legislative Committee, said tonight:

"The measure would provide for a state minimum wage for all members. The State board would be authorized to appoint local wage boards for any industry below the living standard. The local board would be empowered to investigate, recommend and report to the State board, which, after a public hearing could approve, modify or set aside the recommendation of the local board. The State board also would be authorized to issue to apprentices and journeymen a permit or license for employment at less than the minimum wage."

Similar measures now are pending in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Oregon, Ohio and Illinois, Chairman Davenport stated.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 16.—Unless a reply to their demand for a minimum wage of $50 per month is received by the wireless telegraphers on the Pacific Coast tomorrow, the operators will vote upon a final action to enforce their demands, according to statements of the union men tonight. The demand was submitted on February 12, with a request for a reply by March 15.
The increase asked is for from $35 for second operators and $40 for first, which they say is the prevailing pay at the present time for a twelve-hour day. YOLO COUNTY TO THE FORE.
Second in Bearing Almond Trees, and Fig Production and Sixth in Sugar Beets.
BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
SACRAMENTO (Cal.) March 16.—Yolo county, almost in the center of the rich and famed Sacramento Valley, stands as one of the leading counties of California, not only as an almond section, but as a producer of sugar beets, cereals, alfalfa and in sheep raising, farming and dairying, according to data compiled by Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan, which appears in the State bluebook, just published.
To be exact, Secretary Jordan finds that this land of diversified products, and with rich soil in all the elements that make for successful agriculture and horticulture, ranks second among the fifty-eight counties of California in number of bearing almond trees and in fig production; fourth in number of bearing nut trees; sixth in sugar beet production, ninth in value of cereals, ninth in cereal product, ninth in wheat product, tenth in acreage in cereals, in alfalfa and in alfalfa product; tenth in number of sheep; thirteenth in butter product; fifteenth in value of hay and forage; sixteenth in value of domestic animals on farms and sixteenth in milk product.
Within its borders is the largest contiguous body of unbroken fertile land in the State. The coast range on the west and sloping towards the foot of the valley lies the foothill region, in which there is an abundance of fine grazing tracts. The Sacramento River on the east gives the county a longer continuous river front than has any other county in the State.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 16.—Charles F. Baker, former assistant cashier and confessed embezzler of the funds of the Crocker National Bank, is to appear for a preliminary hearing Wednesday before United States Commissioner Francis Krahl.
Although Baker has not been able to leave his home, his physical condition is greatly improved.
He began his stock gambling operations in Wall street, in 1907. His heaviest deals were in cotton and grain, although he was a persistent gambler in mining securities. It is estimated from facts disclosed today that he has invested $2,000,000 since he began his speculations.

Two Parties of Bulgarians at Akalon Drive Defenders Out, and Turks in Attempt to Recapture Lost Three Hundred in Dead and Wounded—Moslems Are Repulsed in Advance on Kadikuei.
[BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.]
LONDON, March 16.—With the improvement in weather conditions the armies in the Near East have become more active, although thus far no news of a pitched battle of any importance has come through. According to official reports issued at Sofia, the Bulgarians and Turks at Tehtaldje have had reconnoitering parties in collision.
In one case a rather sharp engagement resulted. Two Bulgarian parties sent out in the direction of Akalon took at the point of the bayonet a redoubt to the east of that village. The Turks, having been reinforced, tried to recapture, but in the attack lost 300 dead and wounded, who were left on the field.
The same day the Turks advanced toward Kadikuei, but were repulsed. According to Constantinople reports, conditions in the Gallipoli Peninsula are quiet. The Turkish warships are reported to have bombarded the Bulgarian positions at Silivri, but with what result is not known.
Late advices say the Montenegrin siege guns have begun a fierce bombardment of Scutari, a portion of which is in flames.
The Greeks continue to capture stray bodies of Turks. Near Arslan the Greek cavalry captured two Turkish battalions comprising 1,570 men and thirty officers.

Claims of Allies Considered Extravagant and Excessive at Capitals and Among Ambassadors at London, and Porte Is Determined to Continue the War.
[BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.]
LONDON, March 16.—There is no prospect for acceptance by Turkey of the peace terms as proposed by the allies. Dispatches tonight from Constantinople say that the leading members of the Committee of Union and Progress have decided that the conditions could not be accepted, and it is understood that the Council of Ministers had adopted the same view.
The Grand Vizier, Mahmoud Scherif Pasha, visited today the Red Crescent Society and begged the members to continue their efforts, as the government was resolved to continue the war.
At other capitals and among the Ambassadors in London, the allies' demands are considered extravagant, especially with regard to the payment of indemnity and the cession of Scutari and the Aegean Islands.
In the meantime the agitation against Bulgaria continues in Greece. The Greeks in Thrace and Eastern Macedonia have sent a petition to Athens against their incorporation by Burke Must Disappoint Hundreds of Patriots Who Want to Dip Into Uncle Sam's Cash Box.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
WASHINGTON, March 16.—Apparently under the impression that the Democrats will divide the nation's wealth among the people of the country, several hundred persons in letters received today applied for the $24.72 which the Treasury Department estimates is the per capita circulation of the United States.
It was a revival of an old story, intended facetiously which was repeatedly denied during the Taft administration that $24.72 awaited every individual in the country. Many of the applicants asked that the amount be forwarded by parcel post in pennies. It will be for John Burke, appointed Treasurer of the United States, to answer these applicants.

TARIFF ISSUE IS BEFOGGED.

Currency and Toll Question Should Be Settled.

Special Session Must Deal With Many Subjects.

Suffrage and Philippines May Be Discussed.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, March 16.—(Special Dispatch.) The tariff issue is being discussed in the White House for any indication of a change of sentiment toward the consideration of other subjects than the tariff at the special session which will convene early next month. It has become increasingly evident that session convening upon discipline independence, Panama Canal tolls, woman suffrage and other leading issues will be forced upon the attention of the country before the tariff session is well begun; and that it will be difficult to withstand the pressure to have them taken up for action before adjournment.

While the older members of both houses of Congress are urging an early adjournment of the approaching session, there are scores of new men in the Senate and House who are willing and eager to "stay all summer" if necessary, to secure legislative action upon subjects in which they are interested.

THE SENATE COMMITTEES. The reorganization of the Senate last week constituted an important development in the progress toward a programme of general action. The new committees organized Saturday last are ready to begin work before the special session convenes upon the subjects that are considered of first importance.

The impression prevails among Democrats at the capital that Congress will be given an opportunity to take up currency legislation and some other matters after the tariff revision has been made sure.

The Panama Canal toll issue cannot be evaded, in the opinion of Democrats of both houses, who have been advocates of the repeal of the free toll provision in the law which will become operative as soon as the canal is opened next fall.

Representative Sims will reintroduce his resolution to accomplish this end, soon after the session convenes and will attempt to secure action upon it.

TARIFF ABOUT READY. The Democrats have gotten over the places in the tariff revision scheme, have virtually finished with the fourteen schedules of the Payne-Aldrich law, and will take up administrative features of the tariff tomorrow.

With that part of the work disposed of, there will be a final smoothing out of the whole plan, and then a full consideration of the income tax plan with a view to making up any needed amount of revenue.

There have been some additions to the free list of the present law. The fight against free lemons has been compromised with an agreement for a substantial cut in duty. There have been numerous reductions agreed upon in the big schedules, much along the lines indicated while the hearings were in progress.

HAWAII IN FOREIGN SERVICE.

War Department Classifies Island With Philippines, Porto Rico and Panama.

(BY FEDERAL WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, March 16.—(Special Dispatch.) Service in Hawaii is foreign service, according to a new ruling of the War Department which directs the addition of Hawaii to Alaska, Cuba, Porto Rico, Panama and the Philippines in executive orders issued last August listing the foreign service of officers and enlisted men of the regular army and volunteers for the purpose of equalizing assignments to tropical and Alaskan stations.

When an officer is quartered for duty in foreign service of any particular grade and arm of the army one that has the least foreign service will be selected. In this way the military authorities expect to equalize service abroad, so that eventually all officers of any particular grade and arm of the army will have had approximately the same amount of foreign service.

MOURNS CHIEF'S DEATH. HOLLOW BEAR'S LAST TRIP. (BY FEDERAL WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, March 16.—(Special Dispatch.) Military. WILSON TO NAME NEW GENERALS.

SCHUYLER AND STEEVER SOON TO BE RETIRED.

Goethals Is in Line for Head of Engineers, but Will Remain at the Lighthouse Until Success of Panama Canal Has Been Fully Demonstrated.

(BY FEDERAL WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, March 16.—(Special Dispatch.) President Wilson will soon take up the question of filling the important vacancy in the list of the general officers, to occur in his administration. This will come with the retirement of Brig.-Gen. W. S. Schuyler, U.S.A., who reaches the retiring age in about a month. In the meantime, however, a retiring board now in session at San Antonio may recommend Brig.-Gen. Steever for retirement. Gen. Steever will not reach the retiring age until next month, but when he was made a brigadier-general it was understood he would apply for retirement and when he did not the late administration ordered him before a retiring board, which, however, he did not convene until just before March 4. The report of the board has not been submitted.

STEEVER WANTS TO STICK. Gen. Steever is making a desperate effort to be retained on the active list until he is retired by operation of law. He is at present in command of a part of the troops on the Mexican border.

Following the retirement of Gen. Steever is that of Gen. F. A. Smith on May 15 and Gen. R. A. Hoyt on October 9. There will be at least four vacancies in the grade of brigadier-general to be filled during the present year. Naturally there is much interest in the policy of this administration in filling vacancies in the list of general officers.

The selection of senior line officers and those of less rank, who will have longer to serve as brigadiers and who will bring to their duties more energy than is customary with officers who will retire within a few years of the appointment.

GOETHALS IN LINE. Another important army appointment to be made by President Wilson is that of chief of engineers, the present incumbent, Col. Goethals, but that officer prefers to remain on the list, thus until the Panama Canal has been not only completed but its efficiency demonstrated when he hopes to be a major-general.

At Same Time Speaks of "Degradation of the House of Lords" of a Friendly Power With Which He Must Deal on Important Questions as Secretary of State.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, March 16.—Home rule in Ireland within two years was the prediction last night of William J. Bryan, Secretary of State, in an address at St. Patrick's Day banquet given by Irish Americans.

Mr. Bryan based his prediction on the fact that the Irish home rule bill again would be before the English Parliament and that the House of Commons being controlled by the Irish members, it again would be passed by that body and would not require the concurrence of the House of Lords.

Mr. Bryan paid a tribute to the Irish character, which he declared was responsible for the great fight being made for the beginning of the end of hereditary rule.

CRITICISMS HOUSE OF LORDS. "The degradation of the House of Lords," Secretary Bryan said, "is due to its opposition to the home rule bill, which brought about an amendment to the English constitution, thus making the concurrence of the House of Lords unnecessary after a bill has passed the House of Commons a second time. The Irish can point to this as one of the greatest achievements in history, having brought to a virtual and hereditary rule in the British empire. Within two years the Irish will have won the freedom of Ireland."

Referring briefly to the change of administration in the United States, the Secretary said the government of a great country had been transferred from one party to another of diametrically opposite views "without a ripple, without a protest and without a murmur."

SUFFRAGETTE GRIEVANCES. Colorado Delegation in Congress Is Doing All in Its Power to Locate the Blame.

(BY FEDERAL WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, March 16.—(Special Dispatch.) Representative Keating, Republican of Colorado, today introduced a resolution in the House of Representatives in response to resolutions received from that body requesting the Colorado Congressional delegation to ascertain the blame for the laxity of police protection in Washington during the recent parade of women suffragettes and to see that retribution was properly visited on official disorders.

"We alleged outrages are being minutely investigated by a Senate Committee," writes Keating in promising to follow up the wishes of the Colorado Chamber. "In fact," he continues, "the Washington police already have been so thoroughly hauled over the coals that it is safe to wager that the next woman who attempts to march from the peace monument to the treasury will have Pennsylvania avenue entirely to herself and be accorded protection that will entirely free her from any danger of a repetition of the recent deplorable incidents in the suffrage parade."

TRUST INQUIRIES TO BE PUSHED.

Attorney-General Is Eager for Prosecutions.

Standard Oil Company Due for Another Grilling.

Will Ascertain if Decree Has Been Violated.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, March 16.—(Special Dispatch.) Investigations began in the Taft administration are being continued with unabated energy by Atty.-Gen. McReynolds. His inquiries are expected as soon as the forces of the Department of Justice can reach them.

By direction of the Attorney-General, the Standard Oil inquiry will be pushed to conclusion to determine whether the decree of dissolution has been violated.

It has not been decided whether proceedings will take the nature of indictments or a petition of contempt of court, if it is finally concluded that the decree has been violated. If it is found that there is an abridgment of competition through a community of interest, it would be futile, it is pointed out, to prosecute only corporations because corporations cannot be imprisoned. The government under such circumstances, it is added, must find the individuals responsible for any possible misdeeds of corporations.

Other important "trust" investigations which are being pushed include the American Smelting and Refining Company and the United Fruit Company. The new administration also faces the question whether to discontinue or continue the so-called coffee trust, involving about the Brazilian valorization plan.

WAITING FOR DETAILS. Authorities Have Received No Word Report as Yet of Collapse of Pearl Harbor Dry Dock.

(BY FEDERAL WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, March 16.—(Special Dispatch.) The naval authorities have not yet received details of the recent fire at the big drydock at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii. A brief telegram was sent at the time of the accident.

The report mailed from Honolulu expected tomorrow, the president of the San Francisco Bridge Company, the contractors of the dock, who investigated the cause of the mishap, is expected to be here to consult with the naval experts.

WILL KEEP WOLF FROM DOOR. Stock of Wheat in Interior Mills and Elevators Much Heavier than in Preceding Years.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, March 16.—Stocks of wheat held by interior mills and elevators on March 15 were about 12,150,000 bushels, compared with 10,710,000 bushels a year ago and 9,857,000 bushels in 1911, the Department of Agriculture announced yesterday. This estimate based on 3000 replies, and excluded stocks held at points of large accumulations. About 17 per cent of the 1912 crop is held in this manner, while 21.4 per cent of the crop, or 154,483,000 bushels was held by farmers on March 1.

THE WEATHER BACK EAST. Chicago Is Visited by Several Brands with Snow, Rain and Sun Alternately.

(BY FEDERAL WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.) CHICAGO, March 16.—(Special Dispatch.) Several brands of weather blew into Chicago today. During the morning hours it was dark and threatening. At about 10 o'clock the clouds disappeared and the sun came out bright, but not warm. It has been for several hours. Then about 5 o'clock came the big surprise and the rain started. It was a heavy rain, and within a few minutes it became a most pitch dark and for about fifteen minutes following snow came down in almost blinding sheets. During that period nearly half an inch of snow fell. Then it stopped as suddenly as it had started. It has been raining instead of snow, the storm would have been classified as a veritable cloud burst. The weather conditions throughout the Middle West were anything but springlike, freezing temperature generally prevailing. Devil's Lake, as usual, reported the lowest temperature, 2 degrees below zero.

Prof. Frankenstein, the local forecaster, predicts more blizzard-like weather for tomorrow, with a likelihood of rising temperature for Chicago and vicinity during the afternoon or tomorrow night. Middle West temperatures today:

SAYS MILITANCY IS JUSTIFIABLE.

Mrs. Pankhurst Scores Lloyd George as False.

"Weathercock," Is Her Opinion of Churchill.

Praises Sense of Justice of American Men.

(BY FEDERAL WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.) NEW YORK, March 16.—(Special Dispatch.) Following the destruction of a pavilion in the New botanical gardens in England, the blowing up of the country home of David Lloyd George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and the firing of railway stations and other acts of violence, Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, as leader of the militant suffragettes, asked if better results could not be obtained by following the peaceful methods now in vogue. She replied as follows: "Seven States in America, Finland, Norway and New Zealand having granted votes to women, Great Britain can never have the glory of being the first to resort to woman's citizenship. As we hope it will escape the danger of being the last. We are determined that Great Britain shall escape this fate."

(BY FEDERAL WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, March 16.—(Special Dispatch.) This image shows a dark, high-contrast, black and white photograph of a vertical strip of material, likely a book cover or endpaper. A prominent vertical crease or fold line runs down the center, creating a bright, white line that contrasts sharply with the surrounding dark, textured surface. The texture appears rough and aged, with visible fibers and some minor damage or wear. The overall appearance is that of a close-up, high-magnification shot of a physical object.

LIFE'S BURDEN IS UNBEARABLE.

Missouri Girl Kills Herself Because of Troubles.

Body Found on Venice Beach and Note Identified.

Dependent and Ill, Unable to Find Employment.

Apparently driven to desperation by poverty and a secret trouble she had carried with her from Missouri, Miss Nettie Tabler, a young and attractive woman, shot herself through the heart while reclining on the sand at the foot of Florence avenue, Venice, Saturday night. The body was found by J. N. Fraser at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning.

Shortly after 10:30 o'clock Saturday night, the young woman entered the Venice Drug Store and wrote a long note on a telegraph blank. Evidently distressed with this, she thrust it in her pocket and wrote another.

She tendered the last message to one of the clerks, who told her that the operator had gone home for the night. She urged the sending of the message collect, and was told that it would be sent out early in the morning at night rates. But she tore the written blank into bits and, with face pale, left the store.

She probably went from the store to the beach near the Maier pier. Hiding in the shadow of the bulkhead she pulled the trigger of a .25-caliber revolver. It missed her. She tried again and the bullet sped through her heart. Mrs. Oreta Dohl, who lives at Virginia avenue and Speedway, heard the shot at about 10:30 o'clock. It startled her, but she was alone and did not investigate.

PIECE THE BITS.
When the body was found yesterday morning the police carefully gathered up from the floor of the drug store the fragments of the telegram written by the young woman. Justice Rennie put them together, and they read as follows:

"W. A. Van Houghton, No. 2533 Gilliam street, Kansas City, Mo., 'Addie—Telegraph me a ticket home and expenses. Write you a letter this a.m. Returning home."

"The other message, found in the pocket of the coat of the suicide, read: 'Addie—Write you a letter this a.m. Spent the day waiting for night and thinking how you had left me behind as a curse for others. I am going to fight it out, but am coming home, where I'll have help when I am too weak."

This message was unsigned. No money or jewelry was found in the girl's clothes. A purse contained a pitiful assortment of hair pins, a cheap mirror and a return ticket to Los Angeles, purchased Thursday. Where she spent Thursday and Friday nights the police are endeavoring to learn. If she came here Thursday, as her ticket indicates, although everything points to suicide, the authorities are investigating closely every circumstance.

A peculiar feature is that every article worn by the young woman recently been purchased. The blue serge suit, though not costly, was new, as was the blue percale shirtwaist. The underwear had never been washed. The tan shoes were practically new and of good quality.

POVERTY PINCHES.
A link in the chain of circumstances pointing to suicide through despondency because of the pinch of poverty was furnished by the Venice police last night. They say that yesterday a woman whose name they did not learn came into the station to ask regarding a woman of about 22 years of age who called herself "Mary Lee," whom she had befriended during an entirely new outfit of clothes. The woman to whom the clothing was given told of her difficulty in getting work to keep body and soul together.

Undertaker Todd of Brees Bros. & Todd, Venice, in whose morgue the body reposes, sent a telegram to the address in Kansas City. In answer he received the following:

"Send body of Nettie Tabler to G. R. Tabler at Norborne, Mo., and send bill to G. R. Tabler, at Harding, Mo."

THE POLICE are proceeding on a theory that the woman was in delicate health and that the message left by her indicated that she was despondent for this reason. The appearance of the body seems to bear out this theory.

Undertaker Todd, however, after viewing the body, did not agree, although he is sure that Miss Tabler killed herself.

GIRL IDENTIFIED.
HAD ROVING DISPOSITION.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] KANSAS CITY, March 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The body of the girl Miss Nettie Tabler, sister of Mrs. Adeline Tabler Van Houghton, of No. 2533 Robert Gilliam road. She was 22 years old. Her parents live in Norborne, Mo.

That lack of money with which to prepay a telegram may have been the indirect cause of the girl's act is the belief of W. A. Van Houghton, her brother-in-law.

"Nettie was an independent girl and would accept aid from nobody except her home folks," he said today. "She was of a roving disposition and for several years has gone from city to city seeking her way. She had been in Colorado for about three years, but a few weeks ago went to California. She was a girl who loved the outdoors, and at times worked in the commissary departments of large camps."

"From what I heard of the tragedy I believe that because the company refused to send a message to us collect, she made up her mind, while despondent, to take her own life. I suppose she lost her position or was unable to make a living."

"She was a girl who had no use for men and I know of nothing except sudden despondency that would cause her to kill herself. We would gladly have sent her a ticket and expense money with which to come home, had we received a message from her."

Van Houghton said that arrangements had been made to have the body shipped to Kansas City, where it will be removed to the girl's home in Norborne for burial.

The girl leaves her parents, three brothers and two sisters.

MAY OVERDO SIMPLICITY.
President May Have to Hedge on Programme He Has Mapped Out at White House.

[BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.] WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, March 16.—[Special Dispatch.] Simplicity is the keynote which President Wilson has set for this administration, not only in social affairs in the national capital, but in the diplomatic corps as well, and many there who are clamorous for return to customs less formal and less extravagant than have prevailed.

There are difficulties in the way of extreme simplicity, however, and some of the more experienced suggest that the President and Mrs. Wilson will certainly realize that fact sooner or later and may even find themselves under the necessity of taking steps to check the extremes in that direction to which society or at least a portion of it is likely to go once it has, or believes it has, the sanction of the White House.

RECORD BEACH TRAVEL CALLS OUT EVERY CAR.

THE sea called, the mountains beckoned yesterday and the thousands of motorists who were everywhere, lured by the bright sunlight and the breezes of spring. Officials of the Pacific Electric Company said that it was the record travel day of the season. About 40,000 persons rode in the red cars. The number in motor cars is estimated at 10,000.

All of the rolling stock of the electric company was in use all day for the first time this year. "Everything on wheels" was in service. On other recent Sundays when the traffic was heavy some of the cars were withdrawn from service in the middle of the day, but not so yesterday. Where as the travel on other recent days of the winter was lessening and there was a steady pull to the current until late last night.

Nearing Break.

Until 5 o'clock, under the auspices of the women's committee and the educational trip to the harbor on Friday, March 15, the women of the harbor and ample opportunity given the women to see for themselves the wonderful possibilities if properly developed under a commission elected by and responsible directly to the electorate.

The women are doing splendid work in the campaign and making converts as fast as the true facts in the case can be laid before their sisters. Two headquarters are conducted by them in connection with the Citizens' Campaign Committee, and there is something doing at each of them every day. Open house is maintained at room 229 at the Alexandria, and at room 703 at the Merchants' Trust building, where women are invited to call and discuss the proposed amendments and secure the literature which has been prepared. Many are volunteering their services and others desiring to aid will be assigned to duty on the firing line in the coming campaign.

Under the proposed plan, he said that it would cost the city little more to have twenty-one Councilmen at $100 a month than to have nine elected at large at $300 a month, as proposed by the district plan. If one of the men had to be recalled, only the district would be involved, whereas when a Councilman at large betrays the public trust, the whole city must vote on the question of his recall and the expense is ten times as great as it ought to be.

McCallum stated that he is aware that the enemies of the plan to elect a harbor commission are saying that the people would lose sight of its importance and the election would go by default, but this kind of an argument, he said, is only an insult to the voters who know very well that the work of completing the harbor is the biggest problem before Los Angeles and that it is imperative to complete it at once. Three years and more than $500,000 have already been wasted in silly wrangling and McCallum urged his hearers to help put an end to this intolerable condition.

Both sides of the street were crowded and there was a great deal of trouble in getting out of the hall. A hundred or more men were unable to get out of the hall and were crowded into the street. A crowd of men were gathered in front of the hall, and a crowd of women were gathered in front of the hall.

Palms and IN THE CHURCH

REV. BAKER P. LEE, CHRIST CHURCH.

It is vision or the lack of it that decides our life.

Palm Sunday, the forerunner of Holy Week, was observed at Christ Episcopal Church yesterday. Palms were freely used with impressive decorative effect in church and chancel and a very large congregation listened to Rev. Baker P. Lee in a eloquent sermon on the coming of the King. The need of a wider vision was emphasized by the preacher, who said in part:

"This year in the long ago stood upon the hill of Vision, saw through the King on the Mount of Olives on Palm Sunday, and his prophecy was fulfilled to the very letter. Not only the promise to the nation, but to each individual.

"We need a deeper, richer, fuller vision of the world as it is, and of our vision because we are imprisoned in a golden cage, too busy in the pursuit of wealth and power to see the more noble and lasting visions of the highest manhood upheld by Jesus Christ.

"When a man is wholly given up to himself or a woman to herself, then the vision of God is eclipsed by self-interest.

"I see a vision of Los Angeles twenty years from today, the largest and most beautiful residential city of the world, and yet I want it to be also the city of the noblest man and woman whose vision is that of the Orient.

"The greatest need of the age today is for men of vision who are busy in the pursuit of wealth and power to see the more noble and lasting visions of the highest manhood upheld by Jesus Christ.

"The growth of Los Angeles is a miracle of vision. How is it possible that a single piece of unimproved property in our city could have been sold for $100,000 a few days ago? What makes this? It is the vision of the future.

"The vision of the future is a vision of a better, nobler and more unselfish life. It is a vision of a world where the vision of God is eclipsed by self-interest.

"It is vision or lack of it that decides our life. It is vision or the lack of it that decides our life. It is vision or the lack of it that decides our life.

Japanese Black Hand.

knowledge of the tragedy. The shot which ended the life of the officer must have been fired within twenty feet of where men and women were presumably sleeping, and yet none could be found who would admit having heard it. On each side of the alley the houses are crowded close together, hundreds of the little brown-skinned foreigners almost within reaching distance of the assassins, and yet with characteristic shrugs and bland smiles they profess to know nothing.

The greatest mystery the detectives must combat is that of finding out how the assassins ever induced White to enter the death trap which evidently had been set for him. Traces of these men have been, according to those who knew him best, for none knew better than he the character of his enemies. In a neighborhood where he knew that his death meant general rejoicing, it seems almost incomprehensible that he should have taken this short cut unless he was with supposed friends.

A K. K. Kluge, Japanese, found and killed him. The body of the slain was taken to the J. D. Button undertaking establishment, where an autopsy was performed. The body was taken to the J. D. Button undertaking establishment, where an autopsy was performed.

THIS WOMAN HAD MUCH PAIN WHEN STANDING

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made Her a Well Woman.

Chippewa Falls, Wis.—"I have always had great confidence in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as I found it very good for organic troubles and I had displacement, backache and pains when standing on my feet for any length of time. I began to take the medicine, but I am in fine health now. If I ever have those troubles again I will take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Ed. Farnon, 815 High St., Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin.

Providence, R. I.—"I cannot speak too highly of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as it has done wonders for me. I had organic displacement and bearing down pains and backache and was thoroughly run down when I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helped me and I am in the best of health at present. I work in a factory all day long but I do not feel any housework so you can see what it has done for me. I give you permission to publish my name and I speak of your Vegetable Compound to many of my friends."—Mrs. ARTHUR LAWSON, 129 Linnet St., Providence, R. I.

INEVITABLE.
 The churches at Riverside want Sunday excursions stopped. If they are to have a great city they will find that their people must have many kinds of Sabbath recreation.

THEY MUST HAVE IT.
 The United States has shipped more than $40,000,000 in gold to Paris since the new year. Now that the tourists of the East are coming to California instead of going abroad the Europeans are obliged to get America's money in some other way.

GOING AFTER THEM.
 We are pleased to see that the business men and the sensible women of Los Angeles now have the Socialists and their disreputable allies, the Goo Gooes, distinctly on the defensive. It is much better to have them explaining their crazy schemes away than to have them affirming their nonsense.

NOT A CRITICISM.
 We would like to make a comment on a recent episode in this city without placing ourselves in the light of criticizing the management. We know nothing about the manner in which a hotel ought to be conducted. At the same time, we make bold to suggest that a cow which has an aversion to ladies dressed in red has no business upon the mezzanine floor of a large hotel at 11 o'clock at night.

A GENTLE VOICE.
 A visitor here last week said that he had listened to the voice of spring in 150 countries, but never had its call been so alluring as in Southern California. Those of us who stay too close to our own doorways miss the beauty of the wild things at this season. For instance, all of us too seldom enjoy the delicate loveliness of the holly in bloom. There is so much brightness the year around in California that only the stranger really appreciates the softness and fragrance of our spring.

A BRAVE OLD FIGHTER.
 Emilio Kostelitsky has surrendered at Nogales. Never did Mexico have a more valiant fighter than this gray old soldier of fortune whose sword is steeper at 65 than that of most men of 40. He has served his country for more than twenty years, always with valor and without compromise. He was the most feared man in Sonora throughout the old Diaz regime and any new government established in that State will be lucky indeed to secure him at the head of its mounted police.

THE REAL REASON.
 The Democratic Senate has decided to dispense with the services of expert masseurs and in the future the Senate baths will be attended by only one person. This measure is not inspired by any pure Democracy. In the first place, Democrats have always been known as the unwashed, a title they have no doubt justly earned and which they are now planning to sustain. In the second place, this administration has gone dry and a wireless dinner is assuredly not to be followed by a Turkish bath.

NOTHER CANAL.
 It has been covertly intimated, rather than absolutely declared, by some British statesmen and a portion of the British press that if England could not manage to "spurt in" so as to be an influential if not a controlling factor in the management of the Panama Canal she would build a rival canal across Nicaragua.

President Taft's administration quietly called that bluff by negotiating a treaty with Nicaragua which contains a provision that no nation other than the United States shall ever be permitted to construct a ship canal across Nicaragua. This treaty is now before the United States Senate for ratification and will undoubtedly be approved, unless Sir Edward Grey should remonstrate, and even then it may be ratified.

PHOENIX AND WASHINGTON.
 The people of Phoenix, Ariz., are an energetic, intelligent, progressive people, who take an interest in Congress as well as in their local Legislature. They were advised by the press dispatches that a bill was pending at Washington to provide for the strict observance of the Sabbath in the District of Columbia.

Phoenix men and women promptly signed a memorial against the passage of this bill and sent it to Sen. Oscar M. Smith, who presented it to the Senate. The Phoenixians said that to put an end to baseball playing, golf, auto racing and other games on Sunday would deprive visiting Arizona of their customary week-end amusements and be an infraction of that section of the Declaration of Independence which asserts the right of every man to the pursuit of happiness.

In Phoenix the bands play "There's a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight" on Sunday afternoons. Most the Washingtonians are compelled to listen only to hymn tunes? There are "oaks and alns" in Phoenix on Sunday and "glacier is hot in the mouth." Shall Washington not be permitted to indulge in similar inquiries?

Arizona is the youngest of the nation's members, yet when it comes to dictating its policies, framing its laws and upholding the right of every man, whether in Phoenix or Washington, to do as he or she pleases, so long as he permits other men to do the same, Arizona will be there. Let Congress heed the Phoenix memorial against summary legislation or prepare for trouble.

EIGHT HOURS AND WOMEN.
 The professional women and other professional women should have a hearty backing in the protest they are making against proposed legislation discriminating against them at Sacramento. They are up in arms against the labor-unionite proposition to include them in the eight-hour law now applying to women in mechanical occupations. With good reason they ask: "If female nurses are to be prohibited from working more than eight hours a day why not male nurses and doctors? If women office managers are forbidden to work extra hours in an emergency why not men office managers? Why put obstacles in the way of the ambitious woman worker who has already climbed the ladder so as to be on a par with man?" These clever and earnest women should send strong delegations to the State capital to press these points. If they do not the lumber-kneed politicians up there will be likely to follow the dictation of the labor-union bosses, who are jealous of the success of women in the higher lines of employment.

One of the successful young business women of Los Angeles puts the situation plainly before the lawmakers in a letter to one of them. She says:

"If any of the proposed eight-hour laws go through it will hamper at least 3000 women in this city, and a great number will lose their positions. To explain what I mean by hampering—where girls are only working seven hours daily and Saturday afternoon off, but are required to work ten, twelve and fourteen hours for a few days four or five times a year, in justice to their employer don't you think they ought to have the right to stay? Do you think employers want employees in executive positions who, while well fitted, have not the power to attend to business when these emergencies arise? Girls in our positions usually get one or two weeks' vacation with salary; do you not think that we are pretty well paid for any time we have to put in over the eight hours? Women in executive positions cannot be gauged by hours. Have you heard of any woman dying from overmental activity? Do you put the railroads and banks under the same class of legislation? No, you do not. How can you legislate, placing girls in factories, etc., with girls in business and executive positions? Personally, I think this drastic law is the selfish desire of one class of labor to legislate against another. I mean the jealousies exhibited by the union-labor classes over the encroachment of women and girls on positions formerly held by men. Is it this class distinction of the highest order?"

As to professional nurses, the attempt to place them under eight-hour restrictions is the worst of all the freak measures proposed by the Socialists at Sacramento, and it is bitterly resented by the nurses; for if enacted it would reduce their present high wages and would keep them out of employment; and moreover the professional nurse, like the professional office expert, does not wish to be classified as in a mechanical occupation. Could there be anything more unreasonable or inhuman than to ordain by law that a nurse shall quit a suffering patient's bedside when the clock strikes, no matter how acute the patient's needs may be or even if she be undergoing the stress of childbirth? Then think how many lives would be lost if surgeons were compelled to change nurses in the midst of critical operations should "time be up." Just think of it! Has California gone mad enough to place such a law on her statute books?

CONGRESSIONAL WIT.
 Congressman Theron Akia of New York is a wag whose utterances deserve a better fate than permanent entombment in the Congressional Record. Concerning the painting of portraits of distinguished men at government expense he said:

"Most of these heretofore purchased are dubs and better fitted for illustrating the good or bad qualities of Perry Davis's Pain Killer or Pink Pills for Pale People than to be hung on the walls of public buildings as examples of art and to commemorate the existence of some one who never earned his salary. Too often a Sargent or other notable artist is given an order to paint the features of Arthur Day, or Horatio Morton. He said that he did not recommend the cross-breeding of zebras with Missouri mules, or experiments on the feasibility of feeding cows on boxing gloves to make them produce milk punches, or of crossing lightning bugs with honey bees so they could work in the night time, or claim that milkweeds crossed with eggplants would make a foundation for Burbank custards. His fame is secure without a portrait or a statue, for he had sufficient gray matter in his bone box to fit him for every task, no matter how difficult."

UNWISE UNION LABOR.
 The announced programme of the Industrial Workers of the World is to antagonize capital and eliminate brains as agents of production. The banishment of machinery would be the next step. It is the theory of the I.W.O.'s that without machinery work would be given to a larger number of people, and production being increased to the consumer of the article produced would be enhanced, and the remuneration of the worker would be greater.

The tangle in the brains of these reasoners is that they also favor a tariff for revenue only. A tariff that would bring into this country goods made with machinery to compete with American hand-made goods would necessarily lower the compensation of the American worker to a point below that of the European worker. When, if ever, will the labor unions learn that the laws which govern the rate of their wages are not made and never can be made by Legislatures, but are governed even as the price of wheat and cotton are governed, by supply and demand. When will they learn that riot, turmoil, defiance of law and disorder, while harmful to capital, are ruinous to labor? When will they learn that every strike inflicts many times the loss upon the strikers that it does upon the employer? When will they learn that every dynamite bomb exploded by union labor against the shop of an employer destroys with its echoes many workers' homes? When will they learn that the aviation given in San Francisco to Treltmore and Clancy prevented the opening of furnaces and factories and drove capital away?

THE HARBOR AMENDMENT.
 A City Council elected "at large," and the Mayor and his appointees have trifled with the business of making the harbor at San Pedro ready for the ships that within eighteen months will be passing through the Panama Canal. The people of Los Angeles have voted money enough and credit enough to do the needed work to make this city the first in maritime and commercial importance, as it is already first in population and wealth, of all the Pacific cities between Nome and Valparaiso.

For three and one-half years Los Angeles has possessed and controlled nearly four miles of protected water front capable of being made into nearly twelve miles of wharves by the construction of slips. Nearly four years of time and $3,000,000 of bond money voted by the people have failed to give us a single wharf where a ship can dock, or a mile of railway or macadamized road between the city center and the water front. Day after day the columns of journals which helped to place and keep in power an "elected at large" Council and inefficient city administrative officers have been filled with diatribes against "special privilege" and "big business" and "predatory wealth," while they have crawled under the feet of the railroad corporation they clamored about "kicking out" of politics, and have aided it to extract from Los Angeles merchants millions of dollars yearly which might have been saved if there had been honest and competent officials elected by the people instead of putty men appointed by a weak and inefficient Mayor.

It is now proposed by charter amendment No. 16, to be submitted to the voters of Los Angeles on the 24th of this month, to establish a harbor district around the harbor, to be controlled by a board of three harbor commissioners to be ELECTED BY THE PEOPLE, not appointed by the Mayor.

This board will be vested with power to design and construct a harbor and a municipal railroad, and to operate both in the interest of the people. It will have all the power in the harbor district now possessed by the Board of Public Works. It will have power to fix rates and licenses in the harbor district. The exercise of its power will be subject to revision and correction by the City Council within sixty days. The members of this board will be subject to recall by the people.

The present charter authorizes leases of the water front for fifteen years, at the end of which time all docks and improvements revert to the city. No capitalist will accept a lease and build docks on so short a term, and the proposed amendment No. 16 to the charter will, therefore, authorize the board to be elected to make forty-year leases of a portion of the water front; the leases to be made to the highest bidders at a public letting.

Amendment No. 16 reserves municipal dock No. 1, or the Huntington fill, which will contain 10,000 feet of dockage, when the proposed slip is constructed. In addition to this reservation there is reserved every alternate 2000 feet of frontage, the other alternate frontage to be leased.

The municipal dock at Wilmington of about 1600 feet is reserved in perpetuity to the city under the provisions of section 3, subdivision 41, of the present charter, which it is not proposed to change.

STREAKS OF WIT.

Safety Before Money.
 [London Telegraph:] "Captain," said a wealthy passenger who was about to take his first trip across the ocean, "I understand this ship has got several water-tight compartments."
 "Yes, sir," was the reply.
 "Captain," the passenger went on, decidedly, "I want one of those compartments—I don't care what it costs."

The Irrepressible Youngster.
 [Lippincott's:] "Pop, why does the moon get full?"
 "I don't know. Don't bother me."
 "Pop, I guess if the moon would only stick to the Milky Way it wouldn't get full, would it?"

An Honest Confession.
 [Boston Transcript:] Doctor: Why don't you settle your bill? You said when I was treating you that you could never repay me for my efforts.
 Haydupper: I meant it, doctor.

Glory Enough.
 [Detroit Free Press:] "What I am to-day I owe to my wife," he said proudly.
 "Well, what are you?" asked the cynic.
 "I'm the husband of the best bridge-player in our neighborhood," he replied.

Perhaps Also a Good Nap.
 [London Opinion:] "Ah, sir, I do like it when you preach," said a lady.
 "Thank you. I wish there were more of your kind. And why, my good friend, do you like it when I preach?"
 "Ah, sir, I can always get a good seat then."

And Done as Well.
 [Pittsburgh Post:] "Twenty-five cents a mile for 3000 miles is a pretty good fee for a Presidential elector, eh?"
 "Seven hundred and fifty cold plunks. And we call ourselves an enlightened people. The same work could be done by a 2-cent stamp."

Creating an Appetite.
 [Cincinnati Enquirer:] "That's a bad-looking thumb you have, waiter," said the diner.
 "Does it hurt you?"
 "No, sir," replied the waiter. "It is parboiled. It gets that way from serving soup."

Wouldn't Stand for It.
 [Chicago Record Herald:] "I thought your minister was to have a call to Minneapolis."
 "He did expect it, but he went up there to preach a trial sermon and took his text from St. Paul, so it's all off."

Not Her Fault.
 [Houston Post:] "Papa, mamma says that one-half the world doesn't know how the other half lives."
 "Well, she shouldn't blame herself, dear. It isn't her fault."

The Childless Age.
 [Life:] Fair Visitor: Why are you giving Dodo's teeth such a thorough brushing?
 Fond Mistress: Oh! the poor darling's just bitten some horrid person, and, really, you know, one can't be too careful.

IRRELEVANCIES.
 The diplomat's rule is never to believe a half of what he is told or a quarter of what he says.
 Illusions are the scaffolding on which we mount. Once arrived we can make shift to do without them.

There are in this world certain mirror-like individuals who reflect all opinions and retain none.
 Never hesitate, from mistaken reverence, to pluck the venerable beard of a lie!
 Faith, hope and charity. Charish the first, cherish the second, and be silent as to the last.

Poverty may induce you to turn your cuffs. But never let it persuade you to turn your coat!
 It is persistency and not consistency that finally cuts the coupons.
 Comfort is always the latest style with the philosopher.—[Chicago Inter Ocean.]

A GAME OF STRENGTH.
 [The Argonaut:] The Argonaut has been asked what are the rights of the Mexican situation. There are no rights, for it is not a game of rights, but a game of strength. To submit Mexico to any scheme of rights would be to promote anarchy and chaos. What Mexico must have, if there is to be order and through order security and progress, is a man like Porfirio Diaz, strong enough to grasp the reins of power by any method that will turn the trick and then drive forward. If no such man appears then there must come a period of ruinous anarchy which will last until some force shall come from within or without capable of stilling the tempest.

UNCLE WALT.
 The Poet Philosopher.
 He's won a proud and lustrous fame in pastime rough and rude; it's his misfortune that his name recalls some breakfast food. He is a man of mighty form, he has an eye of fire; his soul is brave, his heart is warm. He's one we should admire, he seems heroic when some gink around the mat he jerks; yet, seeing him, we always think of some one's biscuit works. Oh, giant of the wrestling game, great mass of thews and bones, why don't you can that whole wheat name and call yourself Kerjones? You surely rank among the best, you've got so many gaits; and yet, alas, you still suggest flaked rice and shredded oats. You say that you can beat that scamp, Frank Gotch—you can, perhaps! But how could we endure a champ whose name spells ginger snaps? You are a man of force and brawn, of nerve and brain and pith; if you had but been christened John, and worn the surname Smith, to admiration we'd give vent, and banquet you oftensoon, but how can we applaud a gent who name means toasted prunes?

The Brains Rate.
 [From the New Industrial Day, by William C. Redfield:] We are the most efficient people in the world, yet we are but beginning to be efficient. We have yet to learn to utilize the brains of our workers as we use their hands. So long as we look first at the wage rate and the past or present cost instead of at the product rate and the possible cost we shall all be cowards.

[American Lumberman:] "Young Jones says that all that he needs is a start." "No; what he needs is a self-starter."

Ten Points: By the Sea.

But will the owners of the hotel be able to "string" Uncle Sam?

All sorts of bad news over the sea. Jack Johnson has recovered his health.

In Southern California the spring is never delayed by the weather.

It is suggested that Agnes Pinner mean hot water for our friends, the sea lions.

Anyhow, we all know where the sea can be found now. That ought to be some.

Good morning, have you got your sea anemone for the celebration at the Tiger's Day?

The sea sisters might as well prepare for another ordeal. Clarence Darrow is to be tried for a third time.

Verily, it is well enough not to see anything under the Wilson administration, perchance one might be disappointed.

The report that there will be a change of the ivory crop this year is not surprising to the baseball manager. They have cashed now than they care for.

Uncle Joe Cannon will make a sea around the world, but he has been around the lights. For a thrill as might one and size up the Sultan's harem.

Now Vesuvius shows signs of making out again. This will be the first eruption of a similar character since the last party threw his hat into the sea.

Small hats for women are to be the fashion this summer. This ought to enable a man to get into a street car with a woman without being compelled to walk alone.

It is estimated that there are 100 insane persons in this country. Right on the election last fall we would have doubled the number as more than 100.

New Mexico has made a handsome appropriation for a display at the San Francisco Fair in 1918. The new state has a handsome building in the park.

But really, what has Senator Wilson with passing out the office in Los Angeles? The Wilson administration is supposed to be Democratic; the Senator professes to be a Republican.

If Senator Woods should seem to make a judicial appointment at the hands of President Wilson "Holy Him!" would not demand that his cabinet be bonded to stand hitched.

The old-time Democrats ought to be tickled at the news that their President is holding tele-grams with them. Marion La Follette. Wendell is a careless of the company that is in.

It does not seem to be much news of the worry, that the Standard Oil Company has been dissolved by the recent order of the United States Supreme Court. One thing is certain, none of the stockholders are happy.

The list of officers in the United States looks like a roll call just before the end. As usual, the South gets all the things when the Democrats win the era of "dough faces" about to be inaugurated?

The Moros are on the march with them have evidently heard of the declaration of a Democratic President. It is annoying to Senator Quezon to learn that Manila constituents break out in fits of laughter at this time.

The clever writing of Mrs. Chapman Clark, daughter of the late Senator Clark, who will be able to keep the wolf from the door and the sheep from the door. The Clark door is the door of the United States of Bowling Green, Mo.

The passage of a resolution by the Senate Assembly asking that Congress take the present duties on olive oil off the books would be about as effective as trying to blow back the waves of the Pacific with a fan. It is said, but it is true.

They are still doing things in the old way at Washington. The Senate will make a Democratic President, Europe, at government expense. That and a couple of scientific meetings. That and a couple of scientific meetings. That and a couple of scientific meetings.

DETROIT TIGERS ARE A BADLY DEMORALIZED TEAM

DETROIT TIGERS ARE A BADLY DEMORALIZED TEAM
BY HUGH S. FULLERTON.
The study of the Tigers seems to reveal the fact that Jennings has succeeded in strengthening departments away from the control of Jennings, and, on top of that, there is serious trouble with the management over contracts and salaries.
Cobb, Crawford, Dubeck and some of the others demanded more because of their individual showing last year, which the management refused on account of the showing of the team. The Detroit public has turned against its champions to a large extent, and a big class is against Jennings.
Jennings has Cobb, Crawford and Veach for the outfield, and Veach's showing last fall stamped him as one of the strongest and most promising outfield recruits in the country. The outfield will be all right and one of the strongest hitting ever assembled in baseball.

NEW YORK, March 16.—Restrictions upon the conduct of Major League baseball players which have included anti-better clauses in contracts signed by Pittsburgh and Cincinnati National League players and among the Chicago Nationals have taken a new turn.
Frank Chance, the new manager of the New York Americans, will bar poker playing for money by his men. According to advice from the training camp at Bermuda, Chance has put into effect a rule on this matter, violation of which will involve a heavy fine.
Chance believes that poker games often cause ill-feeling and jealousy among his men.

LITTLE ACOSTA LIKES THE MASH LETTERS.
(BY FEDERAL WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE (Va.) March 15.—[Special Dispatch.] Little Acosta was the recipient of a bit of mysterious mail matter the other day. From all appearances he is already winning over some of the Washington girls. The particular one saw fit to sign only the initials "J. W.", starting with the rather queer salutation, "Dear Cutie." The mysterious young lady went on to throw out words of encouragement to the youngster, promising him plenty of attention when he comes back to Washington with the club. The letter was translated by Senator Munro in the hearing of Acosta, and the subject matter pleased him greatly. "Very good," was the exclamation of the lips of Little Acosta when Senator Munro completed his task. "I like girls."

WANT BOUTS POSTPONED.
MILWAUKEE, March 16.—(By A. P. Night Wire.) Tom Andrews of Milwaukee, who represents Jack Dillon of Indianapolis, and Jimmy Clabbe of Milwaukee, in negotiations for middleweight boxing contests in France, received today a letter from a Paris boxing syndicate suggesting that the closing of proposed matches for either of these bouts be postponed until the fall. The reason given by the foreign club was that the end of the season was close at hand.

HOORAY! Baby To Rule the House
No Longer Do Women Fear The Great-est of All Human Beings.

It is a joy and comfort to know that those much-talked-of pains and other distresses that are said to precede childbirth may easily be avoided. No more need you fear the slightest discomfort if she will fortify herself with the well-known and time-honored remedy, "Mother's Friend."

This is a most grateful, penetrating, external application that at once soothes and makes pliant the abdominal muscles and ligaments. They naturally expand without the slightest strain, and thus not only banish all tendency to nervous, twitching spells, but there is an entire freedom from nausea, discomfort, sleeplessness and dread that so often leave their impress upon the babe.

The occasion is therefore one of unbounded, joyful anticipation, and no small stress can be laid upon the remarkable influence which a mother's happy, pre-natal disposition has upon the health and fortunes of the generation to come.

Mother's Friend is recommended only for the relief and comfort of expectant mothers, thousands of whom have used and recommended it. You can find it on sale at all drug stores at $1.00 a bottle. Write to-day to the Bradfield Regulator Co., 130 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a most instructive book on this greatest of all subjects, motherhood.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

Pasadena.
ONE ASPIRANT MAY WITHDRAW.

Pasadena Woman Candidate Will Yield if Necessary.

Green Decorations Will Rule Today at Big Hotels.

Pastor Accidentally Breaks Boy's Leg.

PASADENA, March 17.—Miss Virginia Pease, who was put forward by the Shakespeare Club several days ago as candidate for member of the Board of Education, may not run for the office after all. If the board of trustees of the Polytechnic Elementary School, of which she is principal, should express a desire that she withdraw from the race, as it is reported it will probably do, she is prepared to resign her candidacy in favor of some other woman. The fact that her service on the school board would require much of her time and that the Polytechnic Elementary School is a private institution, in no way connected with the city school system, is rumored to be the reason for the hitch. The question will be settled this week. Miss Pease said last night that the trustees of the school with which she is connected are to meet in a few days, at which time it will be determined whether or not she will be a candidate, and the Shakespeare Club will hold a meeting tomorrow, at which the matter will probably also be considered. In case of the possible withdrawal of Miss Pease, the name of some other woman will doubtless be put forward. In fact, Mrs. Calvin Hartwell, president of the club, declared last night that the Shakespeare Club women would like to see two women candidates in the field.

Of course the Polytechnic Elementary School requires most of my time, said Miss Pease last night. I am kept pretty busy. I shall not take up additional duties in case of election to the Board of Education. I shall not be a candidate. I have felt that it was my civic duty to run for the office, but I must serve the school with which I am connected. I hope that if I do not run some other woman will be selected who is in touch with the needs of a city and that she will be elected.

REAL FARMERS NOW.
Although this week is a week of vacation at the public schools of the city, the many gardens that have been set out on the different school grounds by the members of the agricultural classes will not be neglected. So in many of the schools, the work of the week will be to care for the plants and many of the girls too, become rather than think of shirking their duty. They have planned to put in the exact time in the garden because of the cessation of other studies.

Several budding captains of finance have looked ahead to the long summer vacation and have determined to arrange for the summer in a practical way. They have already leased lots in different parts of the city and have planted vegetables with the hope of conducting a business when the summer comes.

W. S. Klenholtz, who has charge of the work in the Pasadena city schools, stated yesterday that if possible he would like to secure a plot of land for the school grounds and arrange it so that any of the boys who like to lease a plot and set out a garden, could be the make of the profits that might be derived from their sale. Already vegetables are being raised on the school grounds and a home gardeners' association has been formed by the children.

GREEN IN EVIDENCE.
St. Patrick's Day will not pass unobserved in Pasadena. Special entertainments and decorations have been arranged for at the large hotels and there will be a number of meetings and parties this afternoon and to night.

The most extensive evening's entertainment will probably be at the Hotel Green, where a full program of music and dancing will be given. There will be a high-pressure water system installed in the city, which will be in operation by 10 o'clock.

Long Beach.
CITY FOUNDER TO BE HONORED.

LONG BEACH WILL BUILD MONUMENT TO PERPETUATE NAME.

Grave of the Man Who First Saw the Possibilities of Unattractive Flat in Found and a Shaft of Marble Will Be Raised—News Stories Briefly Told.

LONG BEACH, March 16.—Tardy recognition is to be given the real founder of Long Beach, if the plans of the Signal Hill Civic League do not go astray.

Charles Willmore, the eastern school teacher, who came to the mesa on a new venture Long Beach, in 1880, and whose prophetic eye looking into the future saw its possible greatness, and led him to purchase acreage which he later incorporated as Willmore City, lies in the Signal Hill Cemetery.

For many years his grave was low and it was only recently that an old record in the City Clerk's office was found which gave definite data as to the exact grave of Willmore. Since that discovery the space of earth has been rebanked, cleaned up and sodded, but there is lacking any stone or small head piece giving the name of the lot. Now the Civic Club has taken the matter up and will secure funds for a handsome monument to perpetuate the memory of the founder of the city, that the man who was not entirely lost to the public eye.

To this end the City Council has been asked to lend assistance in the form of a financial donation, that the monument may be in keeping with the honor which is felt is due the man who had such faith in the future of the city that he imperiled himself in trying to evolve the greater Long Beach through a small head piece of time.

BUSY WOMEN.
The coming week will be one of intense activity among the various women's clubs of the city who have been working for the betterment of the city, which will be formally opened on next Saturday, and which the women hope will solve in part the problem of high living and by dispensing with the middleman, encourage the small garden and truck producer and spur him to greater efforts. The City Council, acting with the women, have designated the east side of Pacific Park as the market space and for three months gardeners and peddlers will be allowed to dispose of their wares on Wednesdays and Saturdays with out any rental and license. The women have secured 1000 market baskets to be given away on the opening morning.

NATURAL RESULT.
Fire Chief Shrewsbury is securing data and statistics to show that wherever a high-pressure water system is installed insurance rates have been reduced from 10 to 50 per cent.

The city of Long Beach is now in the process of installing a high-pressure water system in the city, which will be in operation by 10 o'clock.

BOY IS HURT.
In a collision at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon between an automobile driven by Rev. A. R. Tillingshast, pastor of the Universalist Church and a motorcycle ridden by Basnet Alley, a youth who lives at No. 698 South Raymond avenue, the latter suffered a broken leg.

The motorcycle was caught by the fender of the automobile and dragged a distance of thirty feet.

CITY BRIEFS.
A. T. Ruble, a resident of Vincennes, Ind., who recently came to Pasadena to visit his four sisters here and who became ill to return home, died early yesterday morning at the home of one of them, Mrs. Mary A. Denton, No. 272 Arcadia street. The other three are Miss M. J. Ruble and Miss Missa Ruble of Chicago, and Miss Helen Ruble of Boies Coronado. The deceased was 67 years of age and leaves seven children, who reside in Vincennes. The body will be sent to that town for burial. No funeral services will be held here.

This will be a week of notable addresses at the Throop Polytechnic Institute. Henry W. Allen, the writer, will read from his own works at the assembly there at 11 o'clock this morning and at 11 o'clock next morning he will read from his works at the assembly there at 11 o'clock next morning.

Mathews, dean of the University of Chicago, who is to pay a visit to the city, will speak. He is due to arrive here Wednesday morning. Next Thursday night Dr. Robert J. Burdette will deliver a lecture that has not been heard before, entitled "The Laughing Animal," under the auspices of the Throop Institute at the Y.M.C.A. auditorium. All will be free.

City Health Officer Stanley P. Black stated yesterday that the skulls, believed to be those of the victims of the earthquake at the corner of Orange Grove and Lester avenues last Saturday were evidently dug up from what was a shallow grave.

ASTOUNDING DEVELOPMENT.

San Bernardino Candidates Are Disqualified.

Socialistic Menace Removed from Race With Others.

Editor of Organ of Race Tears Up Card.

SAN BERNARDINO, March 16.—The astounding fact, which became known this morning, that most of the candidates who had filed independent nominations for city offices are disqualified from having their names on the official ballot because of the insufficiency of their petitions, has given the biggest political sensation in this city for many years.

J. W. Cutler is the only legal nominee for Mayor out of the five who appeared there were in the race. H. Chase is the only City Attorney nominee out of three supposed to be in the race. The names of the candidates for Councilmen are also disqualified.

That some one blundered is evident. The cause of the mistake, the most of the candidates took the oath at the state election in 1910 as a condition of the presentation of the vote cast at the general election of last fall. That so large a number should make the same error was indicative that most of them were left in the cold.

The situation was known to a small group of candidates, who kept their mouths shut and secured the required number of signatures. One or two actually secured enough, but the balance are left in the cold.

Those who are barred from having their names printed on the ballot are Mayor J. S. Bright, who was making another term; Councilmen Thomas Holmes and W. S. Irvine, whom Holmes wanted to Mayor and William Gray, the Socialist nominee.

A few wise-acre politicians sought to eliminate the primary, thus forcing candidates to file independent petitions. The present situation is the result.

A call for a primary to be held Tuesday, March 18, was published by the city clerk, but it was made to provide the machinery for holding the primary. But now in view of the situation, attorneys are being carefully going to work to get the primary cancelled.

It will be made to compel the filing of a primary. The situation is being handled by the city clerk, who is getting other candidates than J. W. Cutler on the municipal ballot. Facts, Features and Fancies

FOR WOMEN AND MEN. BY OLIVE GRAY.

DAILY BEAUTY HINTS: There is nothing which so quickly tells upon the complexion and general appearance as lack of sleep. The old maxims about "beauty sleep" were well founded in fact. I have been told of a remedy for insomnia which is said to be infallible. It is to take before retiring, a warm bath. A hot bath will not answer. The water should be but a trifle warmer than the body. Hot water arouses and is apt to render one restless; but the warm bath soothes the nerves and produces complete relaxation followed by restful slumber. So simple a remedy is worthy of trial.

HAVE you ever noticed how many women have the habit of complaining that they are "so-o-o tired?"

Recently, I amused myself, during a trip the length of Broadway, part of the time in a car and part of the time in stores and sometimes on the sidewalk, listening to the number of remarks about fatigue which I heard from women.

Two women meet. "How are you?" Oh, pretty well, only I'm so-o-o tired. How are you? Oh, pretty well, but I'm all tired out. We had company all last week and then I have been getting ready to go East and it just seems as though I would never be rested again."

Two women are seated on a street car and the first remark is: "My, but I'm tired!" "So am I!"

I wonder if they really are tired, or if it is just a habit. We are so used to hearing of it that we do not realize how they seem to others.

I am inclined to think that the tiredness of women is a habit. Certainly the matter of speaking so much about it, is a habit, or a fashion. I feel very much like asking, sometimes, when I hear these remarks, if that is anything to brag about.

I would welcome a change in the "tired" fashion. Let's say we are feeling fine and would be glad to walk seventeen miles or so, if we were not so busy having a good time in some other way.

Brodered Bargains.

The early comers to the Broadway district on Tuesday morning will get the cream of those embroidered founcings which will go on sale at a high-class store. There are wide flouncings, fit for the lower skirt of summer lingerie frocks, that skirt which will keep from underneath another skirt; and there are bands for blouses, sleeves and yokes; narrow and extremely fine frillings and insertings and in fact there is in that collection something for every purpose of the summer lingerie. A beautiful collection it is and worth twice or three times more than the uniform price asked. Not in our recollection has there been so great a venue for lingerie frocks, as there will be during the coming summer. It is most satisfactory to select while lines are complete and before those designs which we especially like are gone.

The Wearin' o' th' Green.

Everybody who attends the sales in one of the big Broadway stores this morning will emerge wearin' o' th' green; for little green shamrocks will be presented to each visitor, in honor of Saint Patrick and old Ireland. I'm glad there are such holidays as St. Patrick's Day, for everyone smiles throughout their being upon the very mention of that, gracious holiday. I wish there were more smile holidays.

The Promenade.

That is the name of the new set for dressy wear. It consists of a portrait hat made from broadcloth, a chemise in the new flame shade; and a parasol to match and a scarf to throw across the shoulders. The parasol has the newest fad, the edge gathered between the sticks, and the sticks tipped with ebony to match the long handle of the set.

New Vestees.

One could scarcely call them vests, those new effects which are rather on the order of vestees. They are of silk, satin or pique and are fastened down the front with fancy buttons. They are to wear with the tailored suit and show only at the front of the coat and slightly around the neck. One might, if so inclined, play tramp and go without an under blouse, when wearing some of these with a tightly buttoned coat and no one would be the wiser. I saw some beauties which had just arrived in one of the big stores.

Honey, Honey!

Not a term of endearment in this case, but of appetizing food. I know a woman who uses honey in place of sugar in much of her cooking. She believes the product of the bee. She believes this sweet to be less injurious than ordinary sugar and in fact declares it to be the very best of food, and makes this declaration after years of use. She makes a honey tea-cake which is superb. It is made as follows: One cup of honey, half cup of sour cream, two eggs, half cup of butter, two cups flour, scant tablespoonful of soda, one tablespoonful cream of tartar. Mix up lightly and bake in a moderate oven. The lining, elusive taste of the honey is most fascinating.

Who Is Responsible?

A writer in an eastern magazine attempts to place upon garment buyers the responsibility for the wearing of dress which is, if not vulgar, at least questionable.

The buyers are in reality not responsible, since they are making the attempt to please those who purchase from the stores. Just suppose, for example, that the buyer of one of our Broadway stores decided to take a stand against narrow skirts and when he purchased for his house, decided to take anything save wide skirts. When he returned with his cargo and showed the garments of his selection, what would happen? Would the customers who came to look at frocks accept his decision as to the width of skirts? Not at all! They would go to the house having what they knew to be the latest mode and that buyer would probably lose his position for having loaded up his house with a stock which was unsalable. It rests with the ultimate customer and with her alone, as to whether garments shall be accepted or not; and when it comes to that, it rests with Dame Fashion herself, wherever she may be located. She is who puts forth that mysterious "they say" which is the manifesto as to whether skirts shall be long or short, scant or wide for this or other season. Professional buyers are caterers; it is beyond their power to be anything other than that. However much that eastern magazine may preach to them of their responsibility.

Out of Date.

"She is one of those old-fashioned women who tells me to use wood ashes to clean this or that. Why, I have not seen a wood ash since I was a little girl," said the Critic, in speaking of a woman who, in the midst of the world, seems to be blind to progress. "Why," she continued, "I would not be surprised if that woman actually makes soap from the bits of fat which are left over from her cooking." Then she continued rudely, "I suppose she does not know that there are such things as suet and tallow and I would hate to be the one to break the news."

Fashion's Drawing.

Bishop sleeves are back again. The chiffon blouse is more than ever a favorite. Cotton crepes are much used on the new spring hats. Sashes are beginning to be seen even on tailored suits. Noire and benzoline silk appear in the same costume.

Moire gowns sometimes have bodices of tucked chiffon.

Even the extra-sized suits nowadays have high-waisted skirts.

The new boleros have gathered fronts and pointed backs.

Draperies seem to grow at once fuller and more clinging.

Tuxedo jacket coats are one of the new features of spring.

All colors seem to be right, provided they are bright enough.

Fringed washes are seen on some of the new beaded suit coats.

Many of the more conservative new straw hats are boat shaped.

Some of the new hat brims are made entirely of tight little roses.

Short mantel coats are made of flowered silk and tulle de jany.

Some of the new hip sash draperies are made of flowered silk.

In Passing They Mistake Each Other for Highwaymen—Molee Ensnared; Bullets Bring Culmination of Battle and Detectives—Quartette Held Pending Investigation.

One man is hovering between life and death at the Sisters' Hospital with bullet holes through his body and leg, and three other men are in jail, two suffering from bruises and contusions, as the result of the men mistaking each other early yesterday morning for highwaymen.

John Pigich of No. 650 Castellar street, who conducts a cigar stand on North Broadway, is in the hospital. Wasco Morach of the same address, having shot Pigich, Melodin and Droberts are the men who were beaten up.

According to detectives, Droberts and Melodin, en route home, met Pigich and Morach, also on their way home, on Castellar street near Sun-set boulevard. When they attempted to pass each other the five men were struck. For a few minutes there was a fierce mix-up.

After Melodin had been knocked over the head he drew his revolver and fired. Pigich and Morach ran. Melodin and Droberts continued on their way, not suspecting that one of the fleeing men had been shot.

Half an hour after Sgt. Hill reported to the detective bureau that there was a wounded man at No. 650 Castellar street. It was Pigich. First taken to the Receiving Hospital, he was later removed to the Sisters' Hospital.

SCREAMS SCARE THIEF.

Intruder Steals Child's Clothing and Escapes Through Window When Owner Enters Room.

Fannie Dalton, the 10-year-old daughter of E. T. Dalton, No. 1322 Compton avenue, prevented a bold sneak thief from stealing a quantity of her pretty clothes late Saturday night by screaming lustily when she unexpectedly encountered the man in her bedroom.

He escaped by crawling through a window on to the roof of the kitchen, and jumping to the ground. Near the rear fence the man dropped a bundle of Fannie's clothing.

There was no one home when the thief climbed upon the kitchen roof and gained an entrance into the Dalton house by raising a window to the room occupied by Fannie and her sister. The man had collected a quantity of the little girl's clothing and some trinkets when Fannie returned home. Hearing a noise upstairs, she thought it was her sister and rushed into the room.

When she saw the thief, Fannie screamed and did not run, but blocked the door that opened into the hall. That forced the burglar to retreat the way he entered the house.
